

Tips & Information on Corporate Giving & Matched Gifts

Donations Can Be Doubled or Tripled

By requesting a matched gift you can double and sometimes even triple your matched gift depending on the ratios your company matches.

Your Company May Sponsor

Over the years companies have become more inclined to sponsor events and activities that their employees put forward. They also have grant and bursary programs that can be applied for extra dollars.

Volunteering Your Time Pays Too

A new way for companies to build moral is by donating the wages that their employees would have made while they were volunteering for their favourite charity. Check and see if your company has any volunteer programs.

Doesn't Always Have To Be Money

Hosting food or clothing drives is another great way to help your charity, companies may match the donation of goods too.
